Fundraising:

Direct Appeal: Many families wish to give directly to benefit Madera students. Direct appeal provides tax identification and employer-matching information. Individual installment payment plans are available.

Ice Cream Sales: Ice cream is sold weekly after school – a terrific treat and “fun”-raiser.

Shopping Rebate Programs: Once PTA families and friends have registered, every dollar spent at participating stores brings in a percentage to Madera. This results in a “win-win” fundraiser.

Madera Olympics: Parents and friends pledge donations for student “Olympians” who run, jump, throw, kick and do sit-ups. A noncompetitive, and fun-filled event.

Auction: Silent and live auction items are bid upon at this adults-only fundraiser. The auction features everything from summer camps to week-long getaways. The cost of admission covers appetizers, drinks, and dessert. A casual and fun-filled event held in the spring.

Spirit Items: MADERA sweatshirts, t-shirts, and many other items are sold by order form and at many school events.

Book Fair: Organize fun fundraiser with either Barnes and Noble or Scholastic Book Fair.

Other Fundraisers: We also participate in General Mills’ Box Tops for Education and other creative ventures that parents dream up!

Sources of PTA Information

Blue Folder: A blue folder is sent home with your child at the end of each week. It contains important flyers, which will keep you up to date with all school events. All PTA flyers need to be approved by PTA President and Principal the Wednesday prior to Friday Blue Folder disbursement.

E-mail tree: Join the Madera PTA Google Group. Sign up at: <http://groups.google.com/group/maderapta>. Subscribe to this group to receive information about school and PTA news, meeting, activities, and events.

Board Meetings/General Membership Meetings: Are typically held on the second Monday of each month, from September through June, at 7:15 in the Madera Library. Check the marquee, newsletter, or e-mail tree for the most current schedule. All parents are encouraged to attend. Receive updates on PTA activities, discuss new issues and ideas, and vote on budget and other issues.

Madera Matters: The quarterly newsletter that covers school activities is written by PTA volunteers.

Most Madera PTA Activities and Committees are headed by a chairperson who coordinates other volunteers. Chairpersons may volunteer themselves, or be recruited by the committee. A search for the chairpersons usually begins after school starts in the fall. Contact the 2nd Vice President or the current committee chair of the event you are interested in for more information on how to become involved.

Student and Administrative Services

Administrative and Classroom Supplies: The Madera PTA provides teachers with a budget for classroom supplies. It also provides other administrative staff with supply budgets. Upon request, other supplies and equipment that benefit students may be purchased.

Copying: The copy coordinator copies and distributes all school and PTA handouts on weekly basis for the Friday Blue Folders.

Disaster Preparedness: Madera is prepared to provide students with water, food and basic first aid for up to three days in the event of an emergency.

Drug Awareness: The PTA funds Red Ribbon Week activities.

Faculty Liaison: A Madera faculty member volunteers to serve on the PTA Board.

First Day of School Welcome: The PTA sponsors an informational meeting with refreshments to welcome new families.

Founder's Day/Honorary Service Awards: Service awards of exemplary volunteer service to children are given annually at the PTA founder's Day Celebration.

Health and Safety: The PTA provides supplies and volunteers to help keep the kitchen and first aid areas stocked and clean. Volunteers provide assistance in directing cars through the drop-off areas.

Hospitality: PTA provides refreshments for PTA meetings and other organizational events.

Human Relations Display: The PTA maintains the marquee in the front of the school to inform the Madera community of school events.

Library: Chairperson coordinates volunteers for shelving, inventory, and student check-out/check-in in the library. PTA provides funds for book purchases.

Luncheons: The PTA coordinates and hosts teacher and special occasion luncheons.

Membership: Coordinates fall PTA membership drive. Note: only cardholding PTA members may vote on General Membership motions.

Newsletter: Editor collects, edits and writes articles for monthly newsletters.

Olympic Readers and Thousand Page Club: Reading incentives clubs open to all students. Thousand Page club is for Kindergarten through 2nd grades. Olympic Readers Club is for 3rd through 5th grades.

Madera Art Show: PTA organizes a student art fair, showcasing a wide variety of student art.

Room Representatives: The PTA coordinates Room Representatives for each classroom. The volunteers plan traditional school celebrations such as Halloween, Winter Holiday, Valentine's Day, etc.

Roster: The PTA provides families with a school roster listing the names of families who have given their consent to be in the roster.

Science & Technology/Science Fair: The PTA provides funding for the Science and Technology Teacher's salary, and funds equipment and supplies. It also funds the Science Fair.

Garden: The PTA helps fund and maintains the Madera Garden, established by the Shadi family.

Site Improvement Plan: The PTA provides funds to assist in implementing the school's site plan.

Study Trips: PTA provides funding for study trips and special in-class presentations.

Yearbook: The PTA coordinates the production of the Madera Yearbook, which is sold at a minimal price to cover costs.

Family Events

Pizza in the Park: a great chance to get reacquainted with schoolmates and parents, and to meet new friends. The teachers staff the food line, and parents pitch in to prepare food. A nominal fee covers the cost of the event.

Winter Holiday Program: An evening program of community and student singing and refreshments to celebrate the Winter Holidays.

Carnival: Our fun-filled end-of-year family event. Carnival booths and concessions are staffed by parents and students, and a minimal ticket charge for games and activities covers the cost of the carnival.

International Night: Multicultural potluck family dinner. Come and celebrate the many ethnicities that make Madera great.

Math and Science Nights: The PTA funds fun family events hosted by Lawrence Hall of Science and Chabot Space. These extra events enhance the curriculum, and fun for all age groups.

NON PTA-SPONSORED ACTIVITIES

Classroom volunteers: Teachers coordinate volunteers for their classrooms. Volunteers may assist with computer, science, art, tutoring, paperwork, library, etc.

Fifth Grade Activities: Fifth Grade parents are responsible for funding and fundraising for these events.

School Site Council: The Site Council is comprised of parents and staff. Parent representative are elected by parents to serve a 2-year term. The council prepares the school site plan, which specifies how district and state funds will be spent. The council meets monthly.
